PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1891.

Is He the Man Who Murdered Carrie Brown in the East River Hotel?

Arrested Last Friday and at Police Headquarters Ever Since.

Blood-Stains on His Hands and Clothes and In His

"Shakespeare" to the Hotel.

The Evidence for and Against His Being "Jack the Ripper."

Coroner Schultze Adjourns the In quest Until Monday Week.

A man, whom the pollos expect to prove to be the murderer of Carrie Brown, who was so brutally slaughtered in the East River Hotel is locked up at Police Headquarters.

He was arrested at 9 o'clock on the night of the day on which the murder was discovered. His name is Frank Sherilck or Sherilcks also known as Francois or "Frenchy." He ass been written of before as "Frenchy No.

It was he who that night occupied Room 83 which is diagonally agross the hallway from Room 81. Sherlick was arrested in Jennings's saloos

the same hotel where the murder was com

STAIRS	4
35		28
34	HALL	29
3.3		30
3,2	11	31

DIAGRAM SHOWING THE ROOMS OCCUPTED SHEBLICE AND CARRIE BROWN

Mary Harrington, of 49 Otiver street, where Carrie Brown sometimes stopped, told the po lice that Sherlick's was the latter's lover.

What Sheriick has done or said since his arrest has been kept secret by the police. They have also locked up Mamie Harrington in the Rouse of Detention, and have refused to allow Shertick is as follows: He occupied Room 33 on the night of the killed, and Room SS. There were blood stains in Room 23 on the wall, on a chair, on the floor, and on the bed clothes.

Blood stains were on the shirt worn by Sher

Analysis bas shown that these stains are from human blood. Blood corpuscies were found under his finger nails after his arrest. As additional evidence against Sheriick it is asserted that he is of murderous disposition, that he stabbed in the throat last September SIX PAGES.

SIX PAGES.

PRICE ONE CENT.

The points that need explanation are these What became of the man who went with arrie Brown to room 31? Way did Sherlick remain in the hotel after he murder was committed? Was the knife that did the carving his? Here is the police theory:

Carrie Brown picked up the man, whom she registered at the hotel, They went together to room 31. There they drank ale. The stranger remained in the room perhaps an hour. In hotels of the East River type it would not be difficult to get out innoticed. Then he went away. Sherilck, or Frenchy No. 1, through jealousy or rage, went into room 31 murdered Carrie Brown. Then dripping with blood returned to Room 33, where, in cleaning himself of the gore, he pattered around the blood stains. The police have locked up room 53, so that an EVENING WORLD reporter could not get in this afternoon. They also ordered that visitors should be kept off that floor. Room 31 is not Frank Sperlick is an Algerian, forty years old. He is a half-idiot. He has been a hangeron at the resorts along the East River front where sallors are wont to congregate and spend their wages on the lowest order of

He is of medium size and swarthy. He wear s heavy black mustache and black bair. He wore a suit of dark clothes and a dark Spring overcoat when arrested.

Frenchy bears an unenviable reputation among the outcast women of the Fourth Ward. These women have many stories to relate of his brutality to members of their abar

The prisoner has been arrested several time fatuated with old Shakespeare, and one day, before the murder, while Frenchy was visiting in the cellar dive kept by Mamie Harrington, of 49 Oliver street, "Dublin Mary" Ann Lopez joked him about his infatuation for gray-headed old women, and he sprang at her with the fury of a fiend.

But Mamie Harrington keeps a baseball bat for just such emergencies, and she winded the club with such vigor that she drove this Algerian out of the place.

The police say that two years ago this man brutally abused a woman known to her associ-ates as "McGinty" in Mr. Craue's lodginghouse at 51 Oliver street, and that only last January he attempted to kill Dublin Mary in the very room waere Carrie Brown was butchered, Dublin Mary naving refused his demand for a dollar.

Frenchy and the man whom he called his court are familiar figures in Cherry street. They travelled together, and although neither of them had atendy employment they always seemed to be supplied with money. The man was with Shakespeare early in th night of the murder, and they quarrelled in Speckman's saloon, Uliver and Oak streets, over their drinks. They visited a densa Fourth Ward saloons that night, and when last seep together the old woman was singing in a neudlin way, while Prenchy had all he could

Frenchy and Mary Ann Lopes lived together at one time, and once the fleros Algerias was arrested for sinking his teeth into her arm, and his woman was used by the police in catching

She was allowed to walk through Cherry dill and Frenchy approached and spoke to her. She indicated that he was the man. She was then returned to the House of Detention and Frenchy was arrested as stated.

This was evident from the apparent relief olice official, from Inspector Byrnes down.

street station, greeted reporters with a smile that betokened contentment and satisfaction, but he preserved his usual reticence when questioned as to what had been done in the said the Captain, "and you will learn som that what the police have accomplished will all

Capt. O'Connor Jenied that he had ever made the published statement that the police were mistaken idea that the murderer had escaped "We have not stopped searching," said the Captain, with emphasis, but further than this Only Detectives Von Gerichten, Crowley and the Oak street station at 10 o'clock, and they took things very easy and evinced no dispos tion to hustle. The impression prevailed that the hunt for the murderer had been abandoned and that what little work was still to be done and evidence.

bemselves is evident from this morning's The Washington police have arrested a man the answers the description of the murder fairly well and are waiting for New York deectives to identify him.

The prisoner gives his name as John Hughes and his address as New York, but will not say

The Troy police, too, gathered in at Mechanicaville, N. Y., a suspected Ripper who could speak no English, and released him again, but Inspector Syrnes, too, has another suspect in custody, who was arrested yesterday at Newtown, L.L. He is a foreigner, named George Frank, of Middle Village, speaks broken English, is about forty years old and has a dark complexion.

He was released from the Queens County Jeti on April 10, after serving a sixty-day term ROOM $3 SHALED UP.

The seal of secrecy has evidently been placed upon the proprietor of the East River Hotel and the attendants.

Everywody connected with the hotel was as non-committal this morning in regard to the happenings there as though their mouths had having been found on the fatal top floor to in-dicate that the fleudish butcher of old "Shakespeare " was Frenchy No. 1."

The bartender said orders had been given Mary Lopez, and had also threatened to kill not to allow uny one to go upstairs and look at Carrie Brown because she wanted no more of the rooms. He even said that no rooms had een rented there since the day after the murder was discovered.

seeded in visiting the top floor and making at napect'on of the ball.

The door of room No. 53 in which "Frenchy

No. I" is said to have slept the night of the murder was locked.

The door of every other room, except Room No. 31, where old "Shakespeare" was butchered, was wide open. A chambermaid was grat finishing her work on the floor, and it No Cessation in the Upward Moveooked as though she might have been doing ome scrubbing. A careful examination of the ballway did no close any signs of a trail of blood having been left by the murderer, nor did it appea that any of the floor boards had been cut to remove such a trail, if such there had been. Proprietor Jennings had refused to say whether the police had discovered or attempted to remove boards showing any such marks of whether the furnishings had been removed

He also had refused to state whether anything had been discovered in room 33 that should

But the door of room $1 was siar as though ome one had been in there and forgotten to close the door when he came out.

The reporter was not permitted to enter room No. St., it being said that the police had given orders not to permit any inspection of the scene of the crime. From another source it was learned that the room had been visited by detectives this norning.

the curious fact that there does not appear to have been an occupant of room 33 on the night of the murder. day nights by the same party. Wednesday night, according to the register, a different party occupied it, while Thursday night, the night of the murder, no one is registered oom No. 30, which adjoined the fatal room, and been let twice, for 80 is put down twice on the page for that night. A careful inspection of he first 30 showed that it might posibly be sken for 23, but it looked more as though an effort had been made to transform the 0 into When Proprietor Jennings's attention was called to this he said he did not know anything about it, but presumed that the first 30 was

Whether "Frenchy No. 1" had really occumed room 33 or not no one about the hote would say.

WHERE IS "C. ENICLO?" cusarion that Inspector Byrnes brings arainst Sheriick involves the theory that the man who gave his name as "C. Knicle" to the murdered woman, only remained with her in room 31 in the East River Hotel a short time, and that he left the hotel unobsevred by Then Sherilck, who occupied that night ver to 31 and committed the murder ome time between the bour of Kaiclo's departure and the morning hour when he left the hotel, in the meantime returning to his room and removing all evidence had been supported by which the orime might be traced to him.

If that theory be correct, what has become of key 21, which the nurderer darried off, and of C. Knielof If innocent, why is he in hiding? He certainly went somewhere after he left the hotel, and could establish by proof. Kaielo's departure and the morning hour when he left the hotel, in the meantime re-where he was and what he did. It was about 11 o'clock on the night of April 26 that the butchered vistim and the man until now suspected as her murderer entered the East River Hotel, had a drink together, paid fifty cents for a room and were satigmed to St. Mary Miniter, the housekeeper, who saw Carrie Brown's companion, says he had light hair and a light mustache. He was tall, wore a derby hat pulled down over his face as if to onceal it. His cutaway coat, vest and trous-

The description of the bell boy, Eddie Fitz-Sherilcu resembles the man who gave tis height. Both are described as tall. Sherilck Even Capt, O'Connor, the sphinx of the Oak is dark haired, dark complexioned, sa'low

The police of the country have all along been looking for a light man, according to the alarm sent out by Inspector Byrnes last Friday, as follows:

GEMERAL ALARM!—Arrest a man 5 feet 9 inches high, about thirty-one years old, light hair and mustacife; speaks broken English. Wanted for morder.

Thomas Byrnes, Acting Superintendent.

On the night of Sherilck's arrest he was confronted with Eddie Fitzgerald and Mary Minwhether they identified Sherlick as "C.

DIL EDBON'S ANALYSIS. Dr. Cyrus Edson, the analyst of the Health Department, when seen at Police Heavquarters this afternoon by an EVENING WORLD reporter, confirmed the statement that Inspector Byrnes had evidence that Frency No. 1 was the He said the evidence was all circumstantial, comstances, and considers the case against Said Dr. Edson: "There is nothing secret about the apprehension of the unfortunate woman's murderer. "He has been at police headquarters. cannot see any objection why the story should not be given to the press, as it will all come out at the inquest this afternoon.

"I just saw Inspector Byrnes, and he tells This conversation occurred on the steps at Dr. Edson and the reporter crossed Mulberry street, and went into the former's private office. Then Dr. Edson said: "It appears that on the night of the murder the woman 'Shakespeare' entered the hotel some time about 11 o'clock with a young man about thirty years old.

 The couple went up to room 31, where the young man remained a few minutes and then left. "Prenchy No. 1," who was the lover rectly across the corridor, that same night.
"Inspector Byrnea has evidence that after the man who was registered as 'C. Kniclo' lett the Hotel 'Frenchy' got up in his stocking feet and went into room $1. "Then it is believed that he tried to renew his former relations with her, but she refused. " He then choked her and mullisted her understand it a trail of blood followed him. Si Oristo 40 F. De Nuest 60 Francisco 225 Gould & C. 225 Stale & Noc. 3.25 Homestake, 8.75 testives cerefully inspected the rooms on the goer of the hotel weere the woman was found and ran across what appeared to be blood (Continued on Second Pays.)

.75

WALL ST. RACING.

ment in Prices of Shares.

Advances All Along the Stock Exchange Lists.

Peady Takers for Union Pacific Mortgage Bonds-The Quotations.

Bear traders were "done un" in fine style a-day by the bulls. The fact that the Bank of England Directors did not put no the rate of iscount was quite sufficient to start up the fires of speculation afresh, and it was not long before the "shorts" had to do the climbing pretty much everything on the list joined in the rocession. The dealings were large and ani mated, the buying orders coming from a mated, the buying orders coming from all quarters.

The special favorites were Lackawauna, National Corliage, New England, Lie Graucers, Missouri Facine and Union Facine. It is reported that various pools are in process of formation and that the marke will in consequence be still livelier in the near future.

A Beston special says it is understood that Jay Good and the Equitable Life insurance Co, will take all the new 5 per cent. collateral trust bonds of the Union Pacific.

Speculation displayed are ster buoyancy this afternoon than at any previous time since the inauguration of the current built campaign. Large purchases were made of all the leading stocks, and the rise continued almost to the very close.

very close, to the old favorites, Reading and Rorthern Pacific preferred bouned into prom-nence and the shorts had to pay dearly for their temerity.

nence and the shorts had to pay dearly for their temerity.

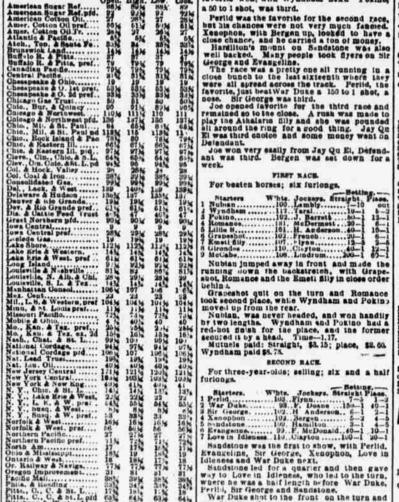

Money leat up to 6 a 7 per cent, on call late in the day. There is nothing remarkable in the day. There is nothing remarkable in the a, since it is the last day of the mouth, and extensive preparations had to be made to meet not only inter-si and dividend disturgements, but for quarterly ronts as well.

The trunk-line people were in session to-day considering the alleged cat in rates by the Canadian Pacific and West Shorte combination.

The Vanderbilt directors also met, and the belief obtains that they will force the West Suore, if it has really committed irregularities, to pull in its norms.

It is not thought possible that the Vanderbilts will allow the West Moore of any other of their lines to be a free lance.

Closing Quotations

THIRD BACK. Selling; five furiouga

10 N. Cun'ne'n on Ophir or Oph POURTH BACE. Handicap; haif a mile.

REPORTS. DY

Perlid Had a Hard Fight to Beat an 150 to I Shot.

GETS SUSPENDED

Joe, a Big Favorite, Got the Third in a Common Canter.

GUITENBURG RACE TRACE, April 34. - Every thing wore a cheerful aspect at Guttenpurg to The officials wore a confident manner and the bookmakers were as smiling and snave as ever. The threatened raid had been averted as a face: sous efficial remarked :  Race tracks may come and race tracks may go, but Gutten enburg will ran on forever. President Walbaum, as voon as he learned ceeded directly to Judge Kuspp's court this Brown and Shannon, who had charge of the French mutuel machines and for whom war ants had also been issued. They gave ball in 11,500 each to appear before the Grand Jury. Peter F. Wilkins, who is the restaurant necting.

and the programme was an excellent one. The skates. Nublan's chances looked so excellent that he was made odds-on favorite, and he was heavily nucled by the cinch players.

Emeti filly was heavily backed for second. while the others were at long odds. The favorite won, with Wyndham next. Pokino, a 50 to 1 shot, was third.

Handstone was the Grat to show, with Perlid.
Evanxeline, Sir George, Xenophon, Love in Idleness and War Duke next.
Sandstone led for a quarier and then gave way to Love in Idleness, who led to the turn, where he was a haif length before War Duke, Perlid, Sir George and Sandatone.
War Duke shot to the front on the turn and was first into the street. At the last furthers War Duke shot to the front on the turn and was first into the stretch. At the last furious pole War Duke, Perild, Sir George, Sandstone and Xenophon were heads apart. It was a terrific drive to the wire, and Perild just landed winner by a nose from War Duke, who heat Sir George a balf length. Time-1. 28.

Mutuels p.id: Straight, $4.40; place, $5.40.

War Duke paid $52.28.

Selling; five furiouss.

Basting.
Bastiers. Weights. Jockeys. Bitraight. P.
1 Joe. 1.11. Hamilton. 5-2
2 Jay Qu. El. 118. Martin. 7-2
3 Defandant. 129. Bergan. 6-1
4 Canteen. 148. Foster. 8-1
6 Athaiane filly. 101 y. H. Anderson. 18-5
6 Kuma J. 197. Fiyan. 30-7
7 Kate Clark. 20 J. Lambley (0-1
8 Duich Girl. 198 J. Lambley (0-1
8 Duich Girl. 198 J. Lambley (0-1
1 Pine Ridge. 111 J. Bergan. 30-1
1 Fine Ridge. 111 J. Bergan. 30-1
1 Fine Ridge. 11 J. Defands. 30-1

Lexington Results.

Ptarters. White Jockeys Straint, I Charley Post. 107 Lambler 8 1 Merrien 116 Hamilton 2 5 3 calishery 104 Hamilton 15-1 6 Renday 15 Davis 1-2 Vingure Birg. 97 Sherecom, 56-1

crowd witnessed the continuation of the race

FIRST DINER-Everything seems to be thoroughly American here, doesn't it?

SECOND DINER-Everything except Major Me-Kinley's speech. There doesn't seem to be any tax on

Peter F. Wilkins, who is the restaurant M'LAUGHLIN'S FINE RIDING. CITY NEWS TERSELY TOLD, had been issued for bookmakers and there He Lands Madstone in a Fine Finish To-Day's Record of Minor Hapat Bennings.

> INPECTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD | BENNING'S HACE THACE, April 31 - The meeting was continued to-day with the usual large crowd and promising card. The weather, however, was the hotiest yet experi> enced here this Spring.

>
> MoLaughlin was on Madatone for the open iar work. The horse was made an over-wholming favorite and he woo, thanks to Jimmy's superior judgment, by half a length from Kitty T. Seventeen horses faced the starter for the second race, with Benjamin the favorite. There was a long delay at the post and the race was Suelly won by Costa Rice, a 7 to 1 Six furiongs.

good finish Madetone won by half a from Kitty T., who was three lengths Bellsarius. Time—1.15%.

BECOND BACE.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORKS, ALBANY, April 80. - The adjournment of the Legislature took place at noon, and was a Philadelphia, was arrested in Hoboken last quiet and uneventful breaking up. The Senate passed the Tax Levy bill before adjournment. Members presented a gold watch and chain benstor Passett and a set of diamond stude o benator Cantor.

A tacit understanding had been reached that A tacit understanding had been reached that the fight over the canal resolution should be light over the canal resolution should be larger thigh and suffering serious internal integral price.

An intermission was allowed, however, for reduction as due to the Republicans and her Democrats. by providing for the division among the counles of the money returned to the State by the Federal Government.

This was ruled out of order.
In the Assembly, Specker Sheehan apcointed two of the six investigating commit ees which that body decided upon. One of the committees appointed is to inves tigate the canals and is composed of McMahon, Brigaton, S. L., have found that be killed him of New York; Taylor, of Orange; Gould, of self while temporarily insane. Lewis; Osborne, of Dutchess; Sage, of Greene; Gallagher, of Erie, and Brodsky, of New Firth Race-One mile. Hadre won, Sparling York, the last two named being Kepublicans second and Kenwood taird. Time-L 42%.

Another computites has a sect of rooting com-Another committee has a sort of roving commission to do the rest of the work called for by Blumentbal, of New York : Webster, of New York ; Endres, of hrie ; Quigley, of Kings; Ruley, of Repsselaer; Kennedy, of Opondaga, and Chamberlain, of Ontario.

§[Alfey Lakeland's fast filly Innovation struck

penings About Town.

Reading Clerk James B. McGovern, of the second race was very close, and it appeared as Soard of Aldermen, appointed a City Marshal, though Leather Stocking got the position. The has resigned his $1,000 position which will be Judge gave it to Charade. In this instance he filled by the appointment of a Twenty-first may have been right, for it was too close outsiders to judge.

Berth For Another Tammany Man.

Caught in the Belting. John Cunto, of 14 Macdongal street, go gright in the belting to the glass-polishing works at 18 Desbrosses street this forencon, and both his legs were broken. Chambers Street Hospital. Alva Free from Quarantine. William K. Vanderbilt's steam vacht Alva which had been detained at Quarantine, having had small-pox on board, was released at two o'clock this morning. She was towed up the North River and moored at the foot of West

Six Months for a Wife Beater. William Pope, of 81 Jackson street, was sentenced to six months on the Island to-day, at Easex Market, for beating his wife.

Swindler Martin is Sentenced. William Martin pleaded guilty in General

Two Horses Suffocated by Smoke Fire in the tenement, 149 East Thirty-eight) communicated to the stable of Overin & Mar-kert in the rear and two horses were suffocated by smoke. The stable was damaged $1,500 and the tenement $850. Reached by Philadelphia Police.

Fell From the Second Story. Miss Mary Tracy, 19 years old, fell forty feet from a second story window at 148 Morris

Victor Von Trendler, who was charged with lowest levy, by the way, fixed in forty-six having thrown Louise Donney out of a third-When that bill was brought over from the afternoon, was discharged at the Tombs this arternoon, was discharged at the Tombs this morning, the woman claiming that she fell out of the window socidentally.

stors Cantor and Linson claimed it for the Donegan's Murder Still a Mystery. Patrick McDonnell, who was arrested in Poughkeepsie on suspicion of murdering Thomas Donegan, who was found dead in an alleyway at 50 Mulberry street a week ago last Sundar night, was discharged at the Tombs this morning, as there was absolutely no svidence to connect aim with the crime.

> Insanity Led To Waters's Suicide. The Coroner's jury in the case of the suicide of Charles Waters, boat builder, at New

Lawyer Houghton Charged with

Perjury. Lawyer Augustus S. Houghton of 244 East Thirteenth street, was paroled in Yorkville Police Court this morning for examination on Contrary to expectation, no call was re-

THE TURF.

Tea Tray Takes Very Kindly to a Stiff Trial Gallop.

RECLARE IN CLEVER FORM.

Other Handicap Candidates-General Track Gossip.

Several of the handleap candidates made good moves yesterday. Tea Tray was brought out on the Brighton track by Billy Lakeland and put through a good stiff gallop at the distance. He ran stidly and did his work well, going the distance in $.18%. As the Brighton Beach track is not in the best of condition, this has been a very good move. Demuth, in charge of Matt Allen, was brought out and sent a good stiff mile over the hill. He went the distance in 1.46%. Senorita, Capt. Sam Brown's main reliance for the handscap, is looking very well. Her best move has been a mile and a quarter in 2.18 over the hill. steady miles in 1, 47 and 1, 48. They are ready

The reports that Reclare has been breaking watches by her wonderfully last work at Brighton have no foundation. She is in the best possible condition, though. Her best work has been a mile in 1.47%, the best quarter being run in 26%, showing that she is nearly right.

herself during an exercise gallop, one day last week, and her right forcing has filled. Tele will keep her back considerably. Judge Nutt certainly made a mistate yester-day when se placed Endurer second and lago third. The last named clearly secured the Judge Fitsgerald, in General Sessions to-day, sontsuced Joseph Avery, convicted of highway robbery the night of Oct. 13 last, to ten years in State Frisen. stand and at different angles. Iago was on the inside, which probably accounts for his be-ing overlooked. The finish between Charace and Leather Stocking for third place in the Charlie Haff, "who has had charge of the Anchored His Team in North River.

A norse and cart belonging to Patrick Medians as a clarge of the Guade, of 186 Seventh avenue, backed over-theard from the pier at the foot of West Twenty-civith street this morning, and the borse was drowned.

This is pleasing news to Hoffe friends, who are legion, and it also insures that everything will be conducted entirely to the public's will be conducted entirely to the pu

Racine, the pride of Senator Stanford's string, will be shipped from California this week. He will probably go to Monmouth Park and into the able hands of Matt Byrnes. Take Notice, a Suburban candidate, be started Eastward in a short time.

Ed Heffner has paid up his forfelts and has applied for a license. The Hoard of Control, however, refused to license him until he should put in:o writing the charges he made of traud on the turf. Tony Hamilton applied for a license yester-day and it was immediately granted to him.

Marty Bergen has not yet applied. At the meeting of the Board of Control yesterday a resolution was passed to the effect that the Coner Island, Brooslyn, New York and Monmouth Park Hasing Associations will not receive entries from persons who are not acceptable to the Board of Control.

Amos and Elmstone, of A. L. Stone's string, have been turned out for the Summer. Arizona was out loose yesterday in the last race and was heavily backed. As is almost invariably the case, the good thing was beaten.

. . . It is a wonder that J. Barrett, who rode Evangeline yesterday, was not called up in the stand to explain he riding of that filly. He never make a move during the entire race and suished with his feet in front of him. George Forces and his friends, who stood to win a lot of money on the filly, were very sore over the race.

Endurer was the best horse in the race which Autocrat won yesterday, but he was ridden very badly. He will about win on his next start.

Dr. Bull quit yesterday as though short of work. He will do better next time.

Fairgood fell from his horse, Razzie Dazzie, in the last race yesterday and received a severa staking up, as well as locking several of his front teeth.

Rover jumped out and won yesterday in Form players at Guttenburg are not winning any money. Those who play on the principle that every horse has his turn are getting all the wealth.

. . . . The American Pony Racing Association will hold its Spring meeting at Hempstead Farm, in I., to-morrow.

Pretty Mother Deserted Her Pretty Baby. Mrs. Addie Bent, of 459 Baltic street, Brook ivn, yielded to a presty woman's appeal to hold a baby a few minutes while its mother did an a capy a rew in lates while its mother did an errand in Wechsler & Abrahama's store. She held the baby tares hours and then took it to the police station. Its mother has not yet been found. It is a very pratty boy baby, about inree months old.

Baseball Schedule for To-Day. Brooklyn at New York.
Philadelphia at Heston.
Uleveland at Pittaturn.
Chicago at Constanti.

we en Room St. in which the woman was